Hello there!

The Alaska World Affairs Council (AKWorld) is a focused educational organization dedicated to stimulating interest in world affairs and inspiring its members to be involved in world events.

The council was founded in 1958 by the late Evangeline Atwood with the conviction that better community education in world affairs is necessary for sound democratic citizenship. The Council does not take a stand on current-day issues but rather provides the population a wide spectrum of viewpoints and background information through its diverse range of programs and activities. The Alaska World Affairs Council is a 501 (c) 3 non-profit, non-partisan organization which is membership-based and is one of approximately 90 members of the World Affairs Councils of America in Washington, DC.

Become a sponsor

Financial support is essential to providing interactive education programs, facilitating active-engagement opportunities with world-class speakers, and inspiring Alaskans to be involved with the world at home and abroad. We are passionate about partnering with organizations to help spread our mission and cultivate the next generation of informed global citizens through meaningful opportunities.
